OVERVIEW OF THE SPONSORSHIP

The Convention Student Travel Stipend Sponsorship promotes your company to future equine veterinarians in conjunction with the world's largest continuing education event dedicated to equine practice. The sponsorship focuses on providing students from AAEP student chapters at 42 accredited veterinary schools with access to a meaningful learning and networking opportunity to advance their career readiness.

This package allows students the opportunity to gain access to the AAEP Annual Convention by applying for a travel stipend. A $300 Student Travel Stipend will be available for up to 25 chapters and awarded for travel to attend the annual convention in Orlando, Florida.
